

Softball Hitting/Fielding Clinic

ASA Softball instructor and former assistant coach at Princeton University Jodie Ricciardi will hold a four-week winter softball hitting and fielding clinic starting on Tuesday, March 18th from 7:00-8:00pm. During each hour Jodie and her staff will instruct the attendees on hitting and fielding fundamentals with demonstrations and hands-on drills. Cost for the four-week program is $70.

Jodie Ricciardi was an assistant coach for four years for the Tigers of Princeton University where she worked with the team's outfielders and slap hitters. Prior to coaching at Princeton she was an assistant at Drew University and at the College of New Jersey. She was a four year letterwinner at Penn State and earned the honor of being the first player in school history to be named First Team All Big Ten. She is also listed in numerous categories in the PSU career and season stats records, including having the seventh most career hits and second most at bats in a season. She brings over seven years of experience doing private softball skill instruction.
